Luke 10:17-24

"All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

Jesus finishes his prayer in Luke 10 with joy and excitement at what he has seen happen through the work of the disciples. The disciples were sent out with the authority to overcome the enemy and they return to Jesus with reports of God's power at work. Jesus cautions them to be more excited about their new relationship with God than they are about the authority and power God placed in their hands.

The season of Lent is a great time for us to take a step back in humility and appreciate the way God loves us and desires friendship with us. Jesus's prayers for his disciples and for us remind us of his longing for us to be filled with The Spirit and to enjoy God's presence through the scriptures, worship, communion, prayer, fasting, and fellowship with other Christians.

I hope this season of Lent gives you the ability to step back from pursuits that might be distracting you from God and that you use that time to enjoy God's presence in your life, God's steadfast love for you, and to be closer to God.

NEW SPRING STUDIES & CLASSES

Wednesdays beginning March 20

Financial Peace University

March 20-May 15

Are you tired of living paycheck to paycheck? Do you worry that an emergency can put you in financial jeopardy? Join us for Financial Peace university, where we will learn the tools to stay on track. Use the link below or visit our website to register and purchase your materials ($109). For more information contact the church office or Chad Powell.

Half Truths

March 20 – April 17

They are simple phrases. They sound Christian—like something you might find in the Bible. We've all heard these words. Maybe we've said them. They capture some element of truth, yet they miss the point in important ways. Join Adam Hamilton in searching for the whole truth by comparing common Christian clichés to the message and ministry of Jesus.

Bible Journaling and Crafting

March 20 – May 15

Whether you are brand new at this type of art or you have been doing this awhile, join us for this fun and exciting class while diving into the word of God through art.

We have 500 glow-in-the-dark eggs for the egg hunt. That means we need a lot of candy to fill them all. Donations of unopened bags of individually wrapped candy can be dropped off at the church office or in the buckets outside of worship on Sunday.

WESLEY BOOKWORMS

March 19

Time to start finishing up "Educated," by Tara Westover. The Wesley Bookworm's next meeting is at noon Tuesday at Chris Broussard's house (need directions, call 454-6460), and a light lunch will be waiting. See you then!
