July 4, 2018 was a tough morning to put up flags, but our team got it done! Jack George, Don Wilson, and Tommy Butler, and Charlie Shelton were on the team. The flags were beautiful, we put up 25 on Folsom and 25 on Major, a total of 50 for the 50 states.

The Scouts came over to take them down in the afternoon. Attached is a photo of the Scout group. A young man named Mason was too young to be a Scout, but he wanted to be part of this, so he put on an old Scout uniform of his brother's and jumped in the truck. Mason is THE MAN! I think all the King's horses and all the King's men could not stop Mason from doing something he wants to do.

We are going to teach these young men the history behind what the Flag represents and what our ancestors did to found this country against all odds. Jack George got that off to a good start yesterday.
